

Design - 003

Client

Municipal Government of Juncos

Cost

Project Name

Office Design; Public Works and Mechanical Workshop

Description

The proposed structure for the new Public Works offices will have two levels adjacent to the new mechanical workshops composed of four specialized repair stations for trucks. Our designers in ACP group, offers a new look to this department between the simple, functional and objective, without forgetting the comfort according with the employees necessities to offer high quality service.